

CODE OF CONDUCT

- Membership of the Green Tourism Business Scheme is a commitment to good environmental practice in business activities.
- The business will ensure that it meets the minimum requirements set by environmental law in the country and fulfils its legal Duty of Care requirements for waste disposal.
- The business will aim to ensure it is minimising the harmful effects and maximising the beneficial influences that its own activities have on the environment.

Insert X in box to indicate that you agree to abide by the code of conduct

If any business is found to have broken the overall aims of the GTBS, the basic elements of the code of conduct, failed compulsory elements, misrepresented their accreditation level including logo misuse, contravened the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, caused significant environmental damage or otherwise brought the scheme into disrepute, the operators reserve the right to fail the establishment or cancel their membership without refund.

GTBS works closely with business partners, in various regions throughout the UK, who are in a position to offer support and assistance in the application process and therefore if you do not wish for your information to be passed to our partners please tick here and return.
